

Diversity Monitoring Information

Kirklees Citizens Advice and Law Centre is committed to valuing diversity and promoting equality. We encourage and welcome applications from all people, whatever their background, regardless of age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage or civil partnership, pregnancy or maternity, race, religion or belief, sex or sexual orientation.

To ensure that we achieve our aims we need to know about the diversity of applicants for jobs. Please assist us by completing this form.

All information will be treated confidentially and this form will be separated from your job application form as soon as it is received – we will not be able to identify who has completed the form. The recruitment panel will be unaware of any information on this form or whether you have completed it.
